

Sign up for or log in using GOOGLE on Mudflat.org and explore account features.

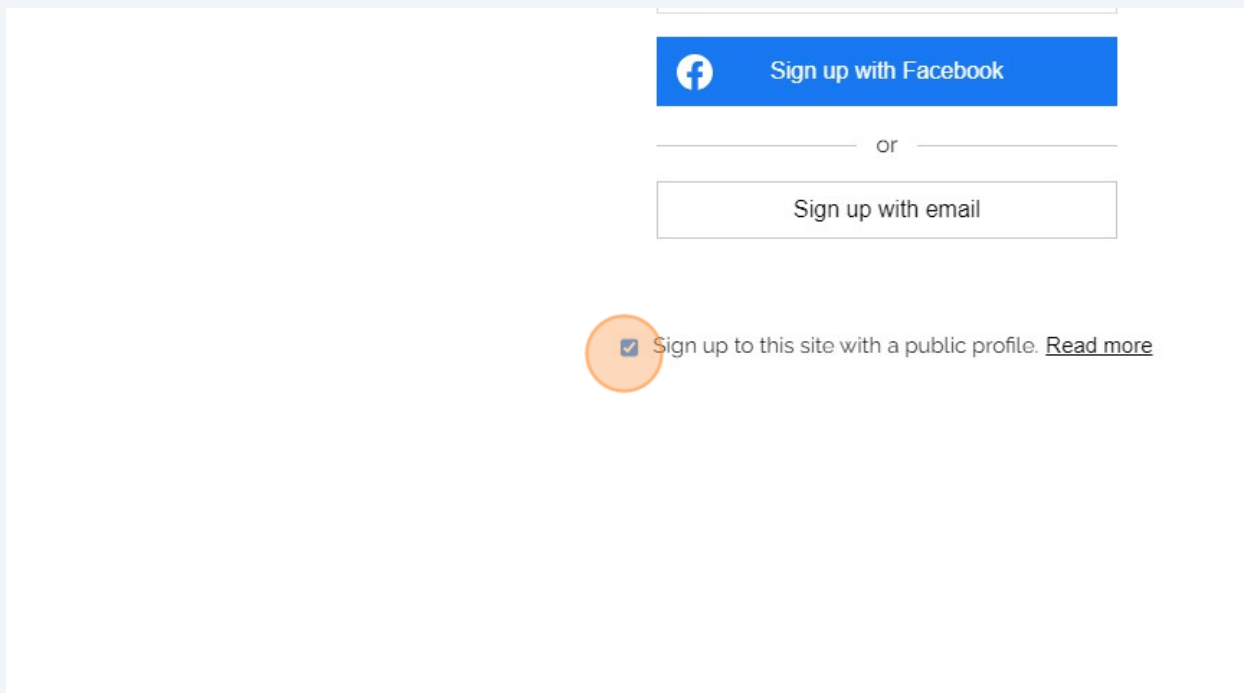

1 Navigate to <https://www.mudflat.org/>

2 Click "Log In" on the right hand corner of the screen.

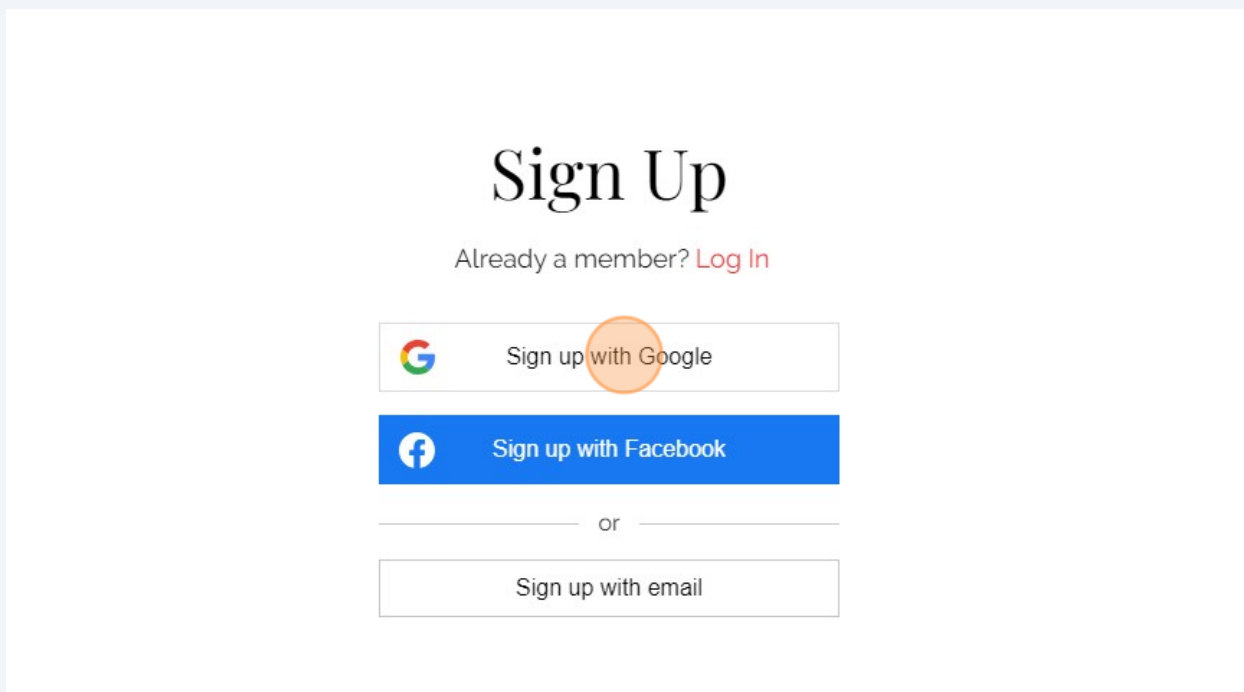

3

If signing up for the first time, decide if you would like to have a public or private profile. Check or uncheck the box depending on your preferences.

4

Click "Sign up with Google"

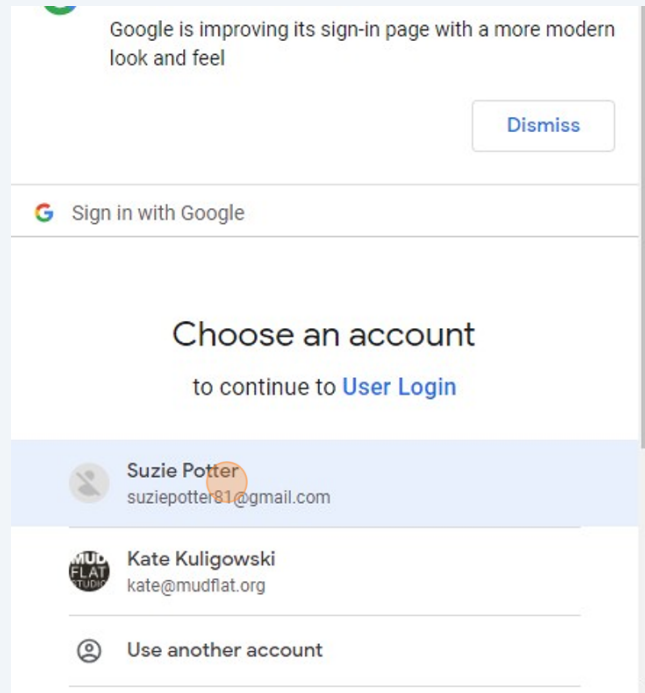

Tip! If you have already created an account, select "Log In" instead of "Sign Up". From there select "Log in using Google"

5

If this pop-up comes up, select the email account that you would like to use to create your mudflat.org account.

Alert! If you are a Mudflat Subscriber, you must sign up using the email that you have used to register for classes in the past! If you do not, your subscription discount when signing up for classes and/or workshops may not be applied. If you have more than one email and need to check which email Mudflat has on file, please contact the office staff before registration.

6

If the website asks for a password, this will be your GMAIL password. You are not making one up specifically for this site since you are using Google to login.

If you do not remember your Gmail password, you must reset your password from your Gmail, not from the Mudflat website.

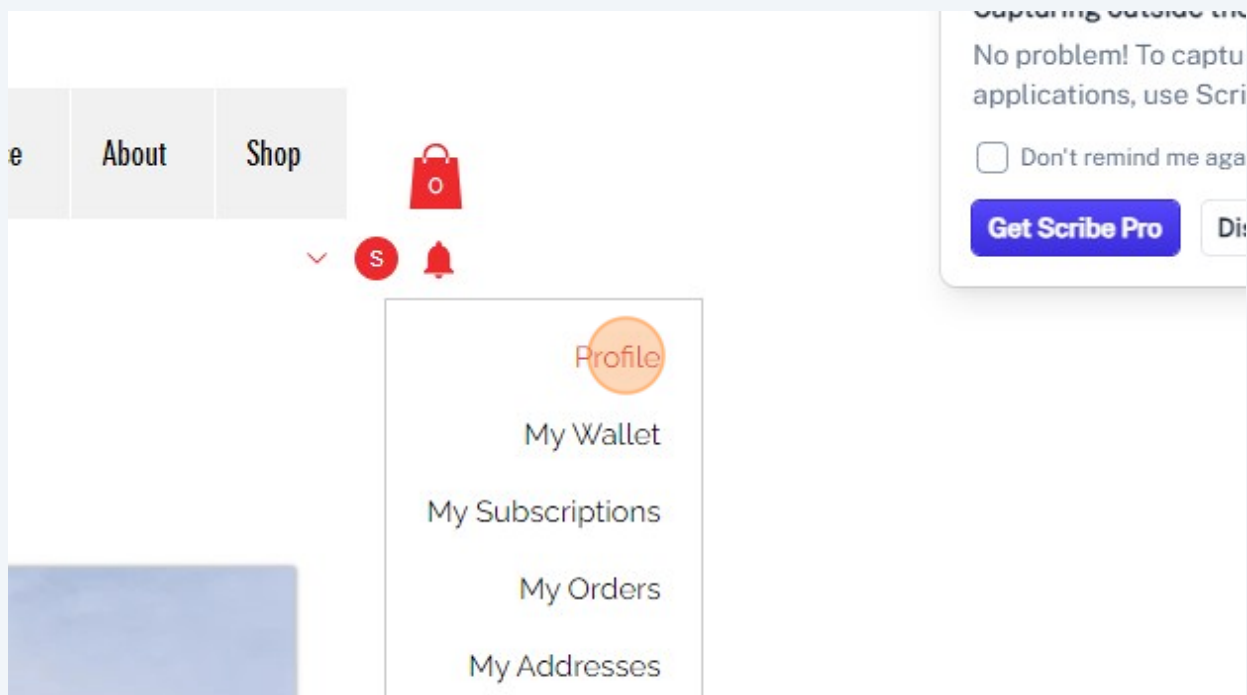

7

After selecting the "Sign up" or "Log In" button, you will be put back on the homepage and you are now logged in. You can see you are logged in because there is a new circle with the first letter of your first name in this location. If you click this arrow icon, you will be able to view your online account.

8

Click any of the options below to check on your information.

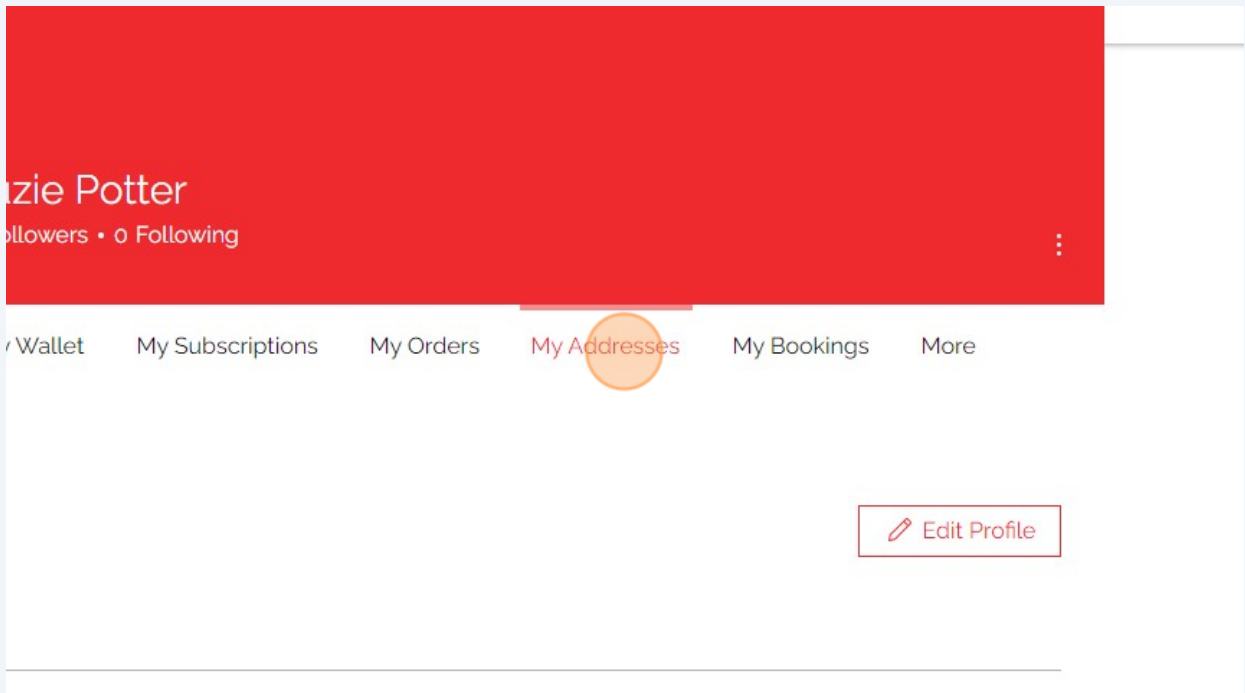

Tip! Entering additional information is NOT required to be able to sign up for classes and workshops.

Your account is a tool for you to view information, and possibly have information autofill when it comes time to register if you decide to enter information into your profile. The next few step show you how you can navigate your profile and find helpful information.

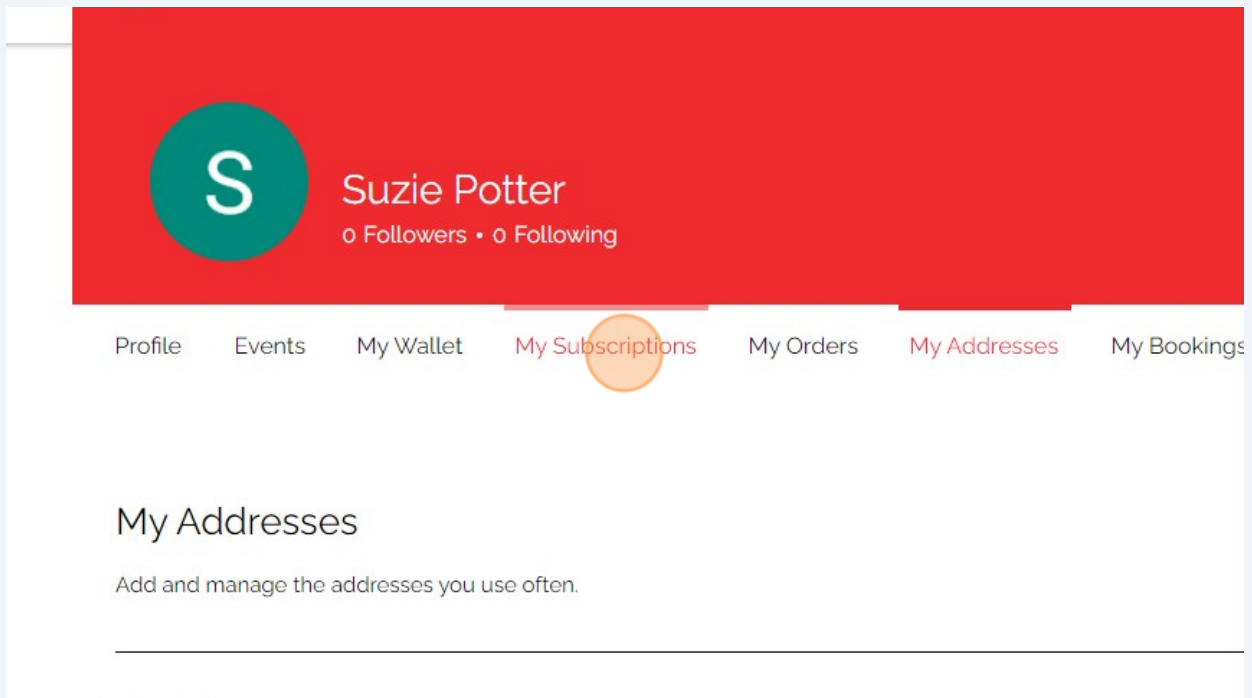

9

Click "My Addresses" if you would like to add your address to your account.

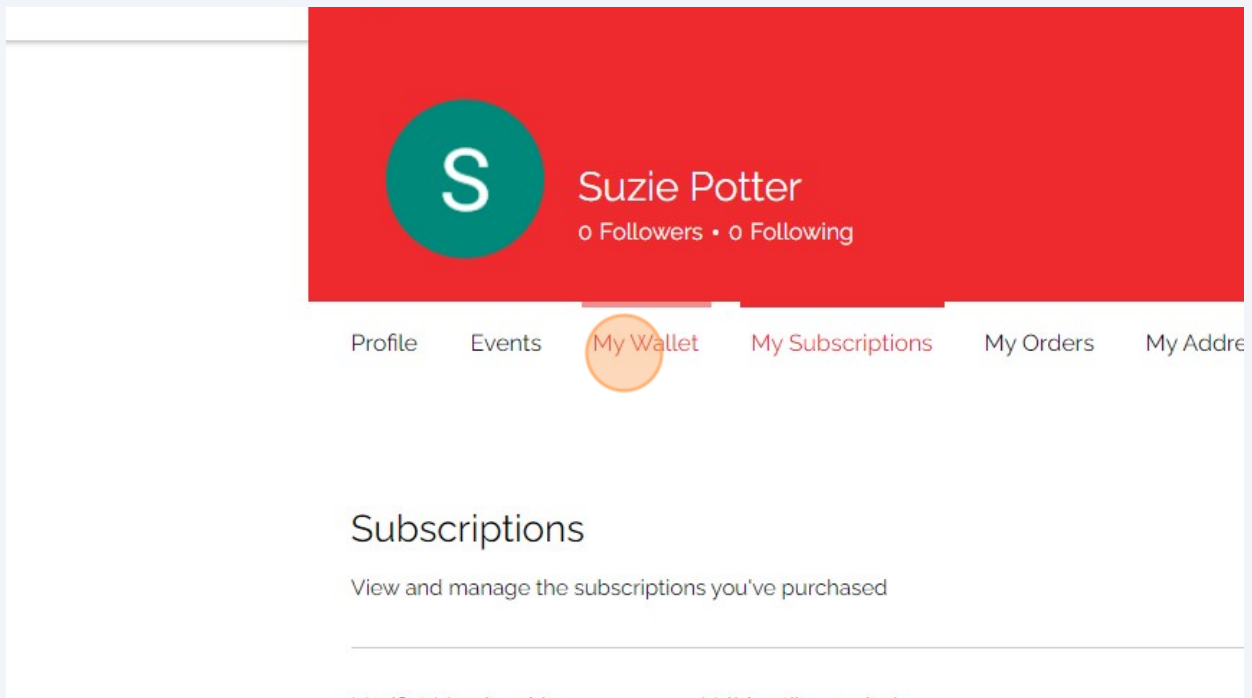

10

Click "My Subscriptions" to view Mudflat subscription information like when you are due for renewal.

Alert! If you believe you are a subscriber, but do not see anything listed under "My Subscriptions" contact kate@mudflat.org before registration is set to begin.

11 Click "My Wallet" if you would like to have a card uploaded in the site.

12 Click "Events" if you would like to see what classes and workshops you signed up for.
